

Dear Members,

Fund raising Garba/Ras program is organised on Saturday 29/01/05 at Florey Temple. from 7.30pm onwards.

A $2 entry charge is requested from all participants. Drinks and snacks will be on sale at reasonable price.

Bharat International and Kitchen of India are donating all the food items.

All money raised will be donated to " Sewa International (Australia) Tsunami relief fund." Please use this occasion also to make donations to Sewa International. A representative from Sewa International will be present to collect donations and issue a receipt.

An idea of the excellent work done by SWEA International can be found at the following web sites:

<http://www.sewainternational.org>

<http://www.sewainternational.org.au>

Regards

Prakash Mehta

Dear Listeners and Friends,

MandirFM wishes you a Happy 2005.

So why not begin the year on a spicy note, courtesy MandirFM?

Yes, this year we not only want to chat with you live on air, but also provide spicy "chaat" to you.

Puzzled?

Well, we need to cover our running expenses including radio station fees, consumables, etc. So, as part of one of our fundraising activities this year, we are going to tempt your taste buds with "spicy masaaleदार chatpati chaat."

MandirFM presents ChaatFM (Chaat For Masti) When? Where? What?

When: Starts this Sunday, 30th Jan 2005 (and then last Sunday of the every month)

Where: Grounds of Vishnu Shiva Mandir, 82 Mawson Drive, Mawson

Time: 11 AM - 3 PM

What: Samosa-Choley chaat, Dahi-Vada, Gol-gappa/Pani Puri, Aaloo Tikki, etc etc How much? Very, very reasonable, nothing over $4 !!

Tempted? So why don't you come and try the Sunday brunch?

No excuses and See you on Sunday. And bring your family and friends too.

Have a nice Australia Day/Indian Republic Day.

Keep listening,

Aapka Apna MandirFM

live in Canberra on every Thursday 7-7.30 pm on 98.3 FM

www.iaac.org.au