Dear IAAC Members,

An Appeal Message from the IAAC Executive Body members:

As you all have already heard about the worst ever earthquake in the history of Pakistan, which has been severely affected by the natural disaster. The earth quake has also rocked northern parts of the Indian subcontinent.

We at IAAC extend our condolences and sympathies to all Pakistanis who have lost their loved ones in this disaster and all those affected in India. In this moment of grief and difficult times, we strongly believe that we should whole heartedly, support relief efforts by donating to this worthy cause, as we earlier did for Tsunami disasters.

We should all remember that any part of the world can be hit by the fury of Mother Nature and in moments like this we all should come together in helping each other. Please help with your generous donations and support. In this connection, IAAC would like to advice you that the Pakistan Australia Friendship Association (PAFA) has launched an urgent appeal and calls upon the same Australian generosity to donate and help them raise the relief fund. Some centres set up to collect donation are from night of 10th October 2005 are:
