

From: "IndiaAustraliaAssociation Inc" <india_australia_association@yahoo.com.au>
To: "IAAC MailingList" <iaac@yahoogroups.com>
Subject: [IAAC] Community Announcements
Date: Wednesday, 28 September 2005 9:34 PM

Dear All,

The High Commission of India will be organising a prayer meeting to commemorate the birth anniversary of Mahatma Gandhi at Glabe Park, ACT at 10:30hrs on Sunday 2nd October 2005.

All are cordially invited.

Regards,

(N.G. Vasanth Kumar)

HOC & First Secretary

The Hindu Council of Australia

Deepavali at Canberra Federal Parliament 2005

The Hindu Council of Australia, a federation of kindred Hindu organisations from all major cities in Australia, is pleased to announce the celebration of Deepavali in the Federal Parliament on Sunday 6th November 2005.

The Federal parliament of Australia has this year also agreed to celebrate the Hindu festival of Deepavali 2005 in the Parliament House. This is a great event for Indians and for all Hindus across the world that Deepavali will be celebrated in the Federal Parliament of Australia.

The Parliament house will be illuminated for six days from 31/10/05 till 6/11/05.

A function is being organised inside the Great Hall of the Federal Parliament on Sunday 6th November 2005. The program will start in the evening at 5.00 PM. Members of Parliaments, Prime Minister and the Leader of Opposition will be invited to participate in this celebration.

There will be magnificent cultural performances by artists from overseas, interstate and Canberra, followed by spectacular Fireworks.

People from Sydney, Canberra, Melbourne, and Brisbane are expected to join in the celebrations.

Tickets are available and can now be booked by contacting:

Canberra - Prakash Mehta :02 6259 5475 (M) 0418-800-753, Kanti Jinna: 02 6258 3540

Tickets Rate:

Front rows -reserved - $ 50 each

General admission - $ 20 each.

Please book your tickets quickly to avoid any disappointment.

www.iaac.org.au

Do you Yahoo!?

The New Yahoo! Movies: Check out the Latest Trailers, Premiere Photos and full Actor Database.